The committee shall do the following:

- (1) Study the prevalence of self-representation in the Kansas District Courts.
- (2) In collaboration with national and statewide entities, including the Kansas Bar Association, study and report on self-representation programs from across the nation and how these programs might improve public access to Kansas courts.
- (3) Study methods designed to assist self-represented litigants and the resources (including time, money, and materials) necessary to implement those methods.
- (4) Develop recommendations to encourage self-representing litigants to consult with and use the services of attorneys to the level to which they can afford those services.
- (5) Develop recommendations and solicit feedback on the recommendations from the public, Kansas attorneys, and entities interested in access to the Kansas courts.
- (6) Report to the Kansas Supreme Court not less than annually on the committee's progress and recommendations.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT this 13th day of February 2008.
