

Rule 214

DISMISSAL NOT JUSTIFIED

- (a) Generally. Except as described in subsection (b), the following situations will not justify dismissal of an initial complaint or a report, a docketed complaint, or a formal complaint:
- (1) the unwillingness or neglect of the complainant to cooperate in the disciplinary investigation or board proceeding;
 - (2) a settlement or compromise between the complainant and the respondent; or
 - (3) restitution by the respondent.
- (b) Exception. Unique circumstances may justify dismissal.
[History: New rule adopted effective January 1, 2021.]
